Dr Andre Oboler

Renowned expert in combating online Antisemitism

ANTISEMITISM AND ONLINE HATE: How to address the risks to Israel and the Jewish people

Dr Andre Oboler is CEO of Zionism On The Web, a website combating online Antisemitism and anti-Zionism. He has presented on these issues at the Global Forum to Combat Antisemitism and has published a number of articles on these topics. He has delivered presentations around the world on efforts to combat online hate against the Jewish people and the State of Israel. Dr Oboler holds a PhD in Computer Science from Lancaster University (UK) and an honours degree in Computer Science from Monash University. He recently completed a year in Israel as a Legacy Heritage fellow at NGO Monitor and as a post doctoral fellow in the Political Science Department at Bar-Ilan University.

Dr Oboler will outline the complex nature of Antisemitism on the World Wide Web, explain how it can be dealt with and teach you to use some simple, practical online tools.
